

Overtime and On-Call Policy

Policy ID: HR-OT-14 · Effective: 1 January 2026 · Owner: People Operations

Company: Nilebyte Solutions (fictional company, dummy data for a portfolio project)

1. Eligibility

1.1 Overtime and on-call pay apply to employees in grades G1 to G4. Employees in grade G5 and above are not paid overtime; they agree time off in lieu with their manager.

1.2 Overtime must be approved in advance by the direct manager. In an emergency, it may be approved afterwards, within 2 working days.

2. Overtime Rates

2.1 Approved overtime is paid at the rates in Table 1, based on the employee's hourly base rate.

Table 1: Overtime rates

When the overtime is worked	Rate
Working day, after contracted hours	1.35 × hourly base rate
Weekend day (Friday or Saturday)	1.7 × hourly base rate
Public holiday	2.0 × hourly base rate, plus a replacement day off (Leave Policy §6.2)

2.2 Overtime is capped at 10 hours per week and 40 hours per month.

3. On-Call

3.1 Employees on an on-call rota receive an allowance for each day on call, whether or not they are called out (Table 2).

Table 2: On-call allowance

On-call day	Allowance per day
Working day (evening and night)	USD 25
Weekend day or public holiday	USD 40

3.2 Time spent working after a call-out is paid as overtime under section 2.

3.3 No employee may be on call for more than 7 consecutive days or for more than 2 weekends per month.

4. Claims

4.1 Overtime and on-call claims are submitted in the HR system by the 5th of the following month and are paid in that month's payroll.
